MUCH IMPROVEMENT

Better Weather and Track Conditions Helpful at Fair Grounds.

Increased Attendance and Surprisingly Good Racing—Odds-on Favorites Fail Badly.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 18.—Today's racing program at the Fair Grounds was fashioned along lines that would afford opportunity for the poorer grade ones in these parts to earn purses and little was expected in the way of good sport, but nevertheless an immense attendance, the best that has been in evidence on a week day since the opening, was on hand.

The racing was better than anticipated, several of the finishes being spectacular. The overthrow of some of the most heavily backed favorites entailed heavy losses for the regulars as well as the rank and file. Some of the winners had good support from their connections. On the whole, it was not such a profitable session for the thirty-eight price quoters.

The severest blows dealt the speculators came in succession with the running of the fourth, fifth and sixth races, in which Waukulla, Atta Boy II., and Neddam, all at odds-on, were beaten. The two winning favorites of the afternoon, Wheaton and Centimeter, accounted for their respective purses in hollow style.

Improvement in weather and track conditions contributed to some extent to bring out the large crowd and also aided in improving the racing. With the exception of the opening race, in which juveniles made the contest, all the other dashes had claiming clauses and in some instances brought to the post big fields of platers. The exception was the closing dash, in which the poorest band that has gone to the post here were the starters and only half of the original entered ones engaged.

WHEATON IN FRONT.

Wheaton, overwhelmingly favored in the opener, put the form followers in a pleased mood when he scored handily after having led throughout and winning from Mary Dear, with Sam Mengel in third place. It marked Wheaton's second victory and his performances in his last two starts gives him rank with the best that has been shown here so far. He began fast and took a good lead at once, winning well in hand for the entire way.

The limit number, fourteen, started in the second race, with Hysteria favored, but failing to get a part of the purse, Poppye winning here after coming with a good rush through the stretch and outstaying Arrowhead. Hysteria suffered much from interference and the diminutive Jones was unable to get her clear of it.

Centimeter in the third race, under good riding, beat a good band of platers, including Cloughjordan and Lorena Marcellia. The latter was probably the best, but was a victim of a jam soon after the start that caused her to be far back. She closed a big gap in game style and was contending hard at the end for the purse.

After racing prominently, but in close quarters until the last sixteenth of the fourth race, Waukulla succumbed to Deronda in the last sixteenth. Despard landed in third place. The race was at a mile and seventy yards and though Deronda was entered for $1,750, it brought him forward as a possible Louisiana Derby prospect. Waukulla was claimed in the race by Mrs. A. Swenke at a cost of $3,000.

ATTA BOY II. DISAPPOINTS.

Atta Boy II., another outstanding odds-on choice, went down to defeat in handy style in the next race. Coral Reef led him from the start, but, in turn, was headed by Harry B., which ultimately won in a romp. Coral Reef, under hard urging, just managed to outstay Atta Boy II. for second place. Both were lucky to get part of the purse for, with good rides, High Gear and Tricks, finishing fourth and fifth respectively, would have displaced them.

Neddam was pounds the best in the sixth race, but could do no better than land in third place. This was due to the incompetency of his rider, who almost fell off in the stretch. Tingling, racing in suddenly improved form, got up in the last strides to outstay Dr. Whitehurst.

The final dash fell to Alard, with Ilenda in second place and Superlative finishing third. Haidee, the favorite, led for most of the way, but tired fast when called on in the stretch.

Frank Keeney, who raced the one-time extensive Ally Stable, was among today's arrivals to witness the racing for some time.

Andy Henninger and several other Cincinnati racing enthusiasts were among the newcomers to remain for some time.

The catalog containing the offerings of the E. Cebrian establishment to be sold at auction next Tuesday, was distributed to owners here. Several horsemen have signified intention of going to Lexington to be in attendance at the sale.

DIOGENES FOR THE DERBY

Winner of the Hopeful Stakes Will Be Pointed for the Famous Kentucky Race.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 18.—R. A. Smith, trainer of Walter M. Jeffords' stable, arrived in New York early in the week, having come up from Berlin, Md., where the horses are wintering. Today, with Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch, he left for Hot Springs, Ark., for a vacation before his duties call him back to his charges.

It was "Bob" Smith that developed Diogenes, winner of the Hopeful of last year, and he has hopes of the son of Ballot and Smoky Lamp being a Kentucky Derby contender this year.

He said that all of the horses had done exceedingly well and that Diogenes had improved greatly in appearance since being thrown out of training. The winter before this colt showed scant improvement through the winter and the way he has grown and filled out is particularly gratifying. While it is too early yet to make Derby predictions Smith said that he knew his colt could run fast and that he was in the best of health. That is about all that can be expected at this time.

STEWARDS POST NEW RULE

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 18.—The following rule was posted this morning by order of the stewards:

"Anyone entering a horse in a race for which they are not eligible will be fined $25.00."

Recently there have been several horses entered in races that have been found ineligible, and the purport of the rule is to make trainers more careful when entering their charges.

CHERRY TREE AT $25,000

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 18.—Mose Goldblatt has been asked by persons at Tijuana to name a price on Cherry Tree, eligible to start in the Coffroth Handicap. He set the price at $25,000.

NEW RECRUIT 1924 STRING

Lee Rosenberg Has Twelve Thoroughbreds Stabled at Belmont.

Becomes an Enthusiastic Sportsman After Having Shown His Silks for the First Time Last Year.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 18.—One of the buyers at Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Belmont Park sale last year, when he disposed of most of his stable, was Lee Rosenberg. He was a newcomer to the turf, but he paid good prices for his purchases and he took four of the offerings, Sun Pal, Sun Audience, Suncar and Ascyra. J. D. Odom had been engaged to train these colts and it was not long before the Rosenberg silks were shown. That was the beginning of a stable that will undoubtedly be built up to much more importance before the end of this season.

Mr. Rosenberg is a cotton broker, well able to indulge in the sport in a big way, and never was there a more enthusiastic sportsman. During the year he made additions to his stable and he purchased seven yearlings during the year that have grown into exceedingly good-looking two-year-olds.

YEARLINGS SELECTED CAREFULLY

The yearlings were bought late in the fall, after they had been highly tried, and they were carefully selected. They are all well engaged and should they race to the promise of their trials the Rosenberg silks will attain a real importance before the season is old.

Trainer Odom has the string at Belmont Park and, while it is impossible at this early time to form any definite opinion on the possibilities of the two-year-olds, it is enough to know that they are grand individuals and are bred along lines that are calculated to bring results.

Probably the best of the young thoroughbreds is Highbinder, a handsome brown son of the Futurity winner Trojan and Bella Desmond, a daughter of Desmond. This fellow is a brother to Desperate Desmond, one of the three-year-olds in the Rosenberg string. He is engaged in all of the important juvenile stakes of the year.

Four of the seven two-year-olds that are to bear the Rosenberg silks this year are colts and have been christened Forward Pass, Highbinder, Chink and Gus R. The fillies have been named Extra Dry, Polly McWiggles and Straddles.

Clarence Kummer has been engaged as first jockey for the Rosenberg stable, and with his long saddle experience the engagement is one that should mean much for the success of the establishment.

Following is the complete stable:

Two-Year-Olds.

Forward Pass, br. c, by Light Brigade—Pleasant Puss, by Orlando.
Highbinder, br. c, by Trojan—Bella Desmond, by Desmond.
Chink, br. c, by Wrack—Star Lady, by Star Shoot.
Gus R., ch. c, by Omar Khayyam—Chemulpo, by Ben Strome.
Extra Dry, ch. f, by St. Martin—Maggie Maitland, by Star Shoot.
Polly McWiggles, ch. f, by Light Brigade—Handzarra, by Handsel.
Straddles, b. f, by Spanish Prince II.—Order of the Star, by Ecouen.

Three-Year-Olds.

Sun Audience, ch. c, by Sun Briar—Conference, by Rock Sand.
Sun Pal, ch. c, by Sun Briar—My Friend, by Disguise.
Suncar, ch. c, by Sun Briar—Carpathia, by Star Shoot.
Ascyra, b. c, by Assagai—Cyra, by Corcyra.
Desperate Desmond, b. c, by Trojan—Bella Desmond, by Desmond.

HUEN AND HERCULES

Fail Miserably in Main Offering at Oriental Park.

Luck Changes for E. F. Whitney in Juvenile Races—Sparkling Finish in Fourth Race.

HAVANA, Cuba, Jan. 18.—The mile and a sixteenth of the fifth race was expected to furnish the principal contest of Friday's program at Oriental Park. What it did was to provide quite an upset when Huen and Hercules, the most favored ones in a speculative way, failed to finish in the money. The winner came from the stable of H. Warner in War Fox, which led all the way by a wide gap, never seriously menaced. Montillo, close up from the start, outgamed old Blazonry in a spirited battle for second honors. Hercules failed to show any speed and Huon appeared lame going to the post.

There came a break in the E. F. Whitney luck in the juvenile race of the day when the quarter mile dash fell to Dextrose, a Cuban-bred daughter of Sir Edgar and Himel Trude, that races for the Rosario Stable and is trained by J. J. McCafferty. C. Lavelly's Rosita was second, and then the Whitney pair, The Creole and Tea Fight, were third and fourth, respectively.

It was a maiden affair that brought together a dozen starters and the success that has attended the Whitney two-year-olds made it natural that they attracted most of the attention before the running. Woodstock had The Creole away quickly, but Dextrose, showing a great flash of early speed, rushed by her to open up a lead of four or five lengths in the first eighth. Williams hustled the Cuban miss along all the way and there never was a time that her lead was threatened, to have her winner by three lengths.

TEA FIGHT DOES WELL.

Rosita, The Creole and Tea Fight finished closely lapped in the order named and at the end Tea Fight was closing so fast that she probably would have been second in another sixteenth. It was the first start for the daughter of Tea Caddy and she is sure to improve over this showing. As for The Creole, she did not seem to have any excuse.

The second offering was a three-quarters dash for platers, and Jack Frost proved best when he led home Toy Along and Weinland. In this The Girl showed a flash of speed leaving the barrier, but Smite and Jack Frost were right after her and she was all through at the end of three-eighths. Jack Frost then readily shook off Smite, to come on and score easily by two lengths. Toy Along had been outrun to the stretch, but there he closed with a rush and outgamed Weinland, to take second place by a length.

Miriam Cooper was an easy winner of the third, another three-quarters dash, but it was only in the last eighth that she caught Quiet. The latter maintained a two-lengths lead until well into the stretch and McLaughlin was content to wait back of him with the Shean entry. Then in the last eighth, as Quiet faltered, Miriam Cooper romped home, to win going away by seven lengths. Bodanzky, after holding third place until well into the stretch, quit badly to finish far back, while Melba Polly outgamed Crimson Rambler for third money.

FOUR SEPARATED BY INCHES.

One of the best finishes of the day came out of the fourth race, when Miss Liberty, Whippoorwill, Gupton, St. Just and Armedee were all in close order. Whippoorwill was the one to show the way in the early stages and Williams hustled him into a two-lengths lead before the stretch was reached. There Miss Liberty, which had been running second all the way, moved up and, after a hard fight, headed him to win by half a length. Right at his tail Squire Wiggins just nosed out Gupton and only a nose further back came St. Just, with Armedee at his saddle skirts.

P. L. Griffin of the Eagle Bond and Share Company is among the recent arrivals.

Charles Fitzmorris, former chief of police of Chicago, arrived here, accompanied by Alex Turner of New York and George Goertz of Chicago.

S. Fullerton Weaver, a New York architect, is here from Florida to spend a few days. C. Louis Kaufman of Cincinnati is also a visitor. He is the guest of Jacob C. Hensheimer of New York.

DUNSANDEL DROPS DEAD

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 18.—The seven-year-old gelding Dunsandel, by Celt—Etelka, by Hamburg, that has been racing for J. Byers, dropped dead in the second race at Tijuana today.

Here and There on the Turf

G. D. Widener Juveniles.
Corn Tassel Retired.
Jockey Ivan Parke.
Entries at Fair Grounds.

What promises to be one of the strong stables this year is that of George D. Widener. A. J. Joyner, who fitted St. James for the Saratoga Special and the Futurity, races that made him the best money-winning juvenile of 1923, will have thirty-six horses in his care this year and all but nine of them are already in the Belmont Park training quarters. The others will be brought on from Erdenheim on May 1, and it is proposed that they will be well advanced before being shipped. It was evident that Mr. Widener would have a strong string of two-year-olds this year when he purchased sixteen Nursery-bred yearlings from August Belmont last year. These, with seven that were bred by Mr. Widener, make up the two-year-old division of the establishment, and it is a choicely bred and carefully selected band that will bear the colors this year.

St. James, son of Ambassador IV. and Bobolink II., was not started after his victory in the Futurity at Belmont Park last fall, though at the time Mr. Joyner announced that his next race would be in the Pimlico Futurity. The only reason he did not fill that engagement was that he was not training exactly to the liking of Mr. Joyner. A less careful trainer would doubtless have brought him to the post for that engagement, but the rest has done him a world of good and this time he looms up as possibly one of the most eligible of the three-year-olds for the great stake races for that age division.

Mr. Joyner from the beginning insisted that St. James was a colt of high class, and his present appearance suggests that this opinion will be vindicated this year, as in 1923.

It is pleasing to see that Richard T. Wilson has brought back his old gelding Corn Tassel. This son of Santoi and Cornfield was almost great when he was racing under the Wilson silks, but being a gelding his only real value was in racing. The old fellow was an honest horse as ever stood on iron and many of his hard-won races showed remarkable gameness.

His Suburban victory of 1919, when he ran a mile and a quarter in 2:02⅕ was his most brilliant accomplishment and he had several excellent races to his credit. Corn Tassel narrowly missed being a great horse. He missed for the reason that he never showed ability to take up heavy weights, but he accomplished much in real race horse fashion.

The shame of it was that after all his brilliant racing Corn Tassel was so knocked about when he had lost his usefulness in top-notch company. The old fellow has had a decidedly rough time of it since he left the care of Thomas J. Healy, but he is back home now and it is assured that he will end his days in comfort.

It is always well that there should be a big slice of sentiment mixed in with the racing of horses, and Mr. Wilson is to be commended for what he has done for the old gelding.

Little Ivan Parke continues to pile up winning mounts that bid fair to see him again leading the jockeys in point of races won at the end of the 1924 racing season. This little fellow by riding through the winter months has a big advantage over those jockeys who confine their efforts to the New York, Kentucky and Maryland campaigns, and he is making every use of that advantage.

It must be remembered that Parke has been meeting all comers in his short but brilliant career in the saddle. He fought his way to the top over the Kentucky tracks and is in no sense a winter development, where many of the best riders do not ride. There has been no element of luck in the fine record he has established. He is a natural rider. He is fearless and, while still a mite of a boy, is strong beyond his weight. Just so long as Parke is imbued with the ambition that enabled him to climb to the top of the heap he will be a leader by reason of his natural ability. He is just as ambitious now as when he first appeared in the saddle. He should have years of usefulness before him, and his topping the list in 1923 is probably just his beginning in a lasting fame.

Edward B. McLean made rather an important addition to his racing stable by the purchase of Gold Bug, three-year-old son of Broomstick and Golden Rod, by All Gold. This colt raced last year for H. P. Whitney, his breeder, and went through the season a maiden, but he has shown enough in private to warrant the belief that he will not long remain in the maiden class this year. Gold Bug is well engaged and will not lack for opportunity should he measure up to his engagements.

An idea is furnished of the number of horses in training at New Orleans this winter when it is known that for the racing Friday there were ninety-seven horses named. This is an average of almost fourteen to a race, and with that there were fifty-two excluded from one race, the three-quarters dash for platers that was the second offering. And it must be remembered that Joseph McLennan had four of the seven races over distances greater than a mile. Two of the races were at three-quarters and the remaining race was a three-eighths dash for the two-year-olds.

This shows just what winter racing has become and the vast number of thoroughbreds that are in hard training all through the twelve months of the year.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Chief Turf Events of Jan. 19, 1904

Racing at New Orleans, Los Angeles and Oakland.

M. J. Daly's Claude won the daily handicap at Oakland, defeating Fossil and Faulconbridge, the only other starters. The distance was one mile.

J. O. Keene, who trained M. Lazareff's racing string in Russia last year and who secured option on Winkfield's services for 1905 for Lazareff, has received a cablegram from St. Petersburg stating that Lazareff had accepted first call on Winkfield in consideration of 10,000 Russian rubles (about $6,000). The cablegram stated that expense money, in the shape of a Russian check for 1,000 rubles, had been forwarded.

E. C. Hopper's depositions in answer to interrogatories relative to allegations made by W. E. Applegate in his suit against George E. Perkins for control of the Latonia race track were filed in Kenton Circuit Court at Covington last Tuesday. Mr. Hopper says that when he met Applegate on the Ingleside race track in December, 1902, the latter denied that he had said he knew nothing of the sale of his Latonia stock and told him that he not only knew of the sale but had also told Mark Simonton about it. Mr. Hopper also denies that Applegate ever told him the L. and N. had offered $40,000 for the track. Hopper further states that in October, 1903, Applegate approached him on the race track at Harlem and told him that if Perkins would release him from the liability resulting from the stock not selling for the debt and give him $10,000 of Latonia Jockey Club stock he would drop the suit, and if Perkins accepted this proposition he need not turn over the $10,000 of stock until the debts on the club had been paid.

FAIR GROUNDS NOTES

John Shields has taken over the horse Cash to train.

J. McNulty was an arrival from Culver City with Red Williams, that he will race here.

The sale of Mason Towle has temporarily been held up. He is still in C. H. Knebelkamp's stable.

T. H. Bernhardt has named his recent purchase, the two-year-old filly by Thunderer—Purling, Rumbling.

The heavy entry list continues and fifty-eight horses were excluded from the first two races for Saturday.

Jockey E. Martin is in great demand in the shorter dashes, particularly on two-year-olds. He has contracted with Al Kirby of the Jefferson Livingston stable for second call.

The Ballot—Miss Declare colt in Jefferson Livingston's stable which has been in a bad way for most of the winter, is now in a fair way to recovery, but will not be trained until reaching Kentucky.

Flattering offers have been received by H. G. Bedwell for the three-year-old Senator Norris, the potential Kentucky Derby and Preakness Stakes eligible. The information was received by trainer Joe Tigue from H. G. Bedwell.

WOMAN OWNER SETS A RECORD

Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable Finishes Second On List of Amerian Money Winners For the Year 1923

The greatest honors ever achieved by a woman on the turf of any country fell to Mrs. Payne Whitney during the racing of 1923, when her Greentree Stable finished second on the American money-winning owners' list for the year with the substantial sum of $199,652 to its credit. This is indeed a wonderful record and the best showing made by that popular racing establishment since its first appearance on the turf. The Greentree Stable of 1923 was a large and diversified one. It embraced some of the best steeplechasers of the year as well as formidable racers on the flat. Its largest winner was the crack colt Rialto, which won four races and $39,366. The grand filly Untidy also figured importantly in the success of the stable, as did Tree Top, Cherry Pie, Exodus, Moonraker, Damask and a host of others. Altogether the Greentree Stable had a string of thirty-three horses and they won fifty-three races, as the following tabulation discloses, the records of each and every horse being presented:

Brought Much Higher Prices Than Had Been Expected—Analysis of Auctions Reflects Healthy Condition of the Market.

(BY E. E. COUSSELL.)

LONDON, England, Jan. 1.—The story of the Newmarket December sales is a fascinating one. In particular the sale of the late Lord Manton's mares and foals was astonishing.

It will be remembered that the late peer died in the hunting field in March last year. In 1919 Alec Taylor bought him nine yearlings at a cost of $125,000. One of these was Lemonora, which won the Grand Prix de Paris, and another, Love in Idleness, which won the Oaks. Nine yearlings were bought in 1920 and they turned out extremely well.

After Lord Manton's death six of the fillies were leased to Somerville Tattersall for one season. Five of them won races worth $110,000. Love in Idleness was not kept in training, but went to the stud.

Last September came the announcement that the late Lord Manton's second son, Robert Watson, was in poor health and would be compelled to spend the winter abroad. The trustees were not willing to take the responsibility of carrying on the stud. Lemonora was offered for sale in October and bought by Robert Watson. The yearlings had been sold in July.

REMAINDER OF MANTON STOCK.

Now in the December sales came the rest of the bloodstock, fifteen mares and seven foals. Among the mares were the fillies Mr. Tattersall raced so successfully last year; most of them were in foal to Lemonora. That they would make big prices was certain, but how big no one could say.

Last September, on behalf of an American breeder, I offered $150,000 for the six best mares, which offer was refused. I learned in December that another offer of $180,000 from the owner of the famous Sledmere Stud had also been refused. The six mares that would have been selected made $246,500 in the sales. Bought as yearlings they cost $74,500.

For the late Lord Manton or his family they won $140,000 after deducting Mr. Tattersall's share of last year's winnings. The original outlay of $75,000 produced a return of $385,000 in four years.

So far as I have been able to trace, Lord Manton spent about $325,000 on thoroughbreds, which animals one way and another gave a return of $695,000. I imagine there has never been a parallel to this extraordinary success in so short a time. It is evident that Lord Manton did not dispose of his good luck when he sold his industrial interests.

STARS OF THE LOT.

The following mares were the mares from his stud which made the biggest prices:

Price.

Tetrabazzia (1918), bay mare (winner of $24,175), by The Tetrarch—Azzazia, by Isinglass and tracing to Miss Middlewick, sister to Violet Melrose, the dam of Melton. Bought by Sir Alec Black, who owned The Panther.....$45,000

Lady Juror (1919), bay mare (winner of $40,285), by Son-in-Law—Lady Josephine (dam of Mumtaz Mahal), by Sundridge. Bought by Lord Dewar..... 43,000

Sister-in-Law (1919), bay mare (winner of $21,285), by Lemberg—Own Sister (sister to Son-in-Law), by Dark Ronald. Bought by Sir Alec Black..... 42,500

Two Step (1919), brown mare (winner of $21,395), by Bachelor's Double—Dancing Dora, by Louviers. Bought for B. B. Jones of U. S. A. 41,000

Love in Idleness (1918), bay mare (winner of nine races and $62,305, including the Oaks), by Bachelor's Double—Cornfield, by Isinglass. This mare was last season covered by Phalaris, but is believed to be barren. Bought by Lord Dewar..... 38,000

Blue Lady (1918), chestnut mare (winner of $25,745), by Tracery—Miss Cobalt, by Pride. Bought by Lord Woolavington... 37,000

The fifteen mares from the Offchurch Stud produced a total of $318,700. The seven foals made $31,800. The grand total was, therefore, $350,500. The highest priced foal was the colt by Gay Crusader, from Love in Idleness. He was sold to Lord Glanely for $8,500. All the mares, except Two Step, were bought by English breeders. Two Step was bought by Basil Jarvis for B. B. Jones. Jarvis tells me her mate for 1924 has not been settled, but if Papyrus does not go to the stud until 1925 she will be mated with him that season.

LORD DERBY'S OFFERINGS.

Lord Derby entered two mares. Venetia is in foal to Phalaris. She is a sister to Selene, which won sixteen races and $71,500 and half sister to Tranquil, which in 1923 won the One Thousand Guineas and St. Leger. Lord Woolavington bought her for $30,000. Lord Derby also received $25,000 from Sir Gilbert Greenall (the breeder of Love in Idleness, for whom he was the under bidder) for the six-year-old mare Verbena, by Spearmint, from Wife of Bath (sister to Chaucer). She is in foal to Phalaris. Few mares of this family come into the sale ring, and when they do English breeders with long purses are on the lookout for them. It is extremely difficult to buy them to go out of the country.

A transaction that caused a sensation was the sale of the filly foal by Percival Keene, from Lady Cynosure (sister to Polymelus). This foal made $12,500. She is a sister to a colt which was included in P. T. Chinn's sale at Saratoga last August. Percival Keene is a half brother to Corcyra. He was a fast horse, but so far has not done a great deal at the stud, though he is still quite young.

HIGH PRICES FOR MANY.

Of the mares offered at Newmarket, no fewer than forty-two realized $5,000. Further, fifteen of them sold for $15,000 or over. This is a substantial fact to contemplate, especially when we remember that last year only five mares made $15,000 or over.

About thirty lots were bought to go to France; quite a number for Baron Maurice de Rothschild, for whom his relative, James de Rothschild, was acting. Other French breeders were busy in a modest way, but with the present depreciated rate of exchange, we wonder that French breeders can come in the market at all.

It is obvious that if American breeders contemplate raiding the British thoroughbred market, they will have to be prepared to give some long prices for the high class, well bred animals. At the same time there is no certainty that these animals will breed any better stock than many other good-looking mares of not such prominent families. This is, and has ever been, the fascinating part of bloodstock breeding.

Quite a number of well-bred young mares and fillies were bought for breeders in the United States, and it is quite certain that they will exercise great influence on the future of breeding in America. They were all shipped on the Mississippi, which left the London docks two days before Christmas.
